American Indian Activities

Caleb Barnes
VC of Indian Affairs

We are in the process of getting ready for our Section Conclave, the Dixie Fellowship. As our annual competition, I'm proud to say that we have an excellent team ready to compete this year! However, we are always looking for new members to join any of our teams so we can continue to improve and enhance the quality of our lodge programs. These programs include our drum/sing team, dance team, and ceremonies team.

For more information about practices, competition, or American Indian Activities in general; please contact VC of Indian Affairs, Caleb Barnes, at vcindianaffairs@muscogeelodge.org.

Looking Ahead...

Walking away from an outstanding ordeal, we can look forward to our future events with great enthusiasm. As we all know fast-approaching is the section's Dixie Fellowship on April 22-24th. This event will be a great time to meet Arrowmen from across the state. Also, coming up is our highly anticipated Spring Fellowship, to be held at Camp Barstow May 20-22nd. The Spring Fellowship is a crucial event because not only is it the first fellowship of the year, but it holds the lodge's elections. Anyone interested running for any position in the lodge needs to be at this event.

On another note the Spring Fellowship will hold training classes on various topics such as Ceremonies, Indian lore, and patches. Chapters will compete in quest events like arrow and softball throw, a cross country race, ultimate frisbee, and flag football. Also, there will be opportunities for Brotherhood eligible arrowmen to seal their membership is the OA. If you think you might be eligible send your chapter chief and email to find out, there information can be found on the lodge website. All brothers should come out and support their chapters and their lodge.

2016 Dixie Update

The Spring ordeal was a great success, camp was prepared for the upcoming year as much work was completed including mulching of the courtyard and campsites, trimming of trees around the parade field, and preparing the new wilderness survival area. Summer camp is coming up and the Directors are still looking for staff! In the past, Muscogee Lodge has supplied a high percentage of the staff at Camp Barstow. If you do not have summer plans yet, consider going to www.indianwaters.org to apply for camp staff.

National Leadership Seminar, another great opportunity, is to be held April 8-10. There are still spots available for this awesome event! Muscogee Lodge will be paying half of the cost for this event and providing transportation. More information can be found at www.muscogeelodge.org.

I can't wait to see everyone at Dixie and the Spring Fellowship in May!
